Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regras da competição / Format et règles de compétition

As of 25 JUL 2016

Olympic competition format

Eventing at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games comprises the team and individual events, and is made up of the following distinct tests: dressage, cross-country and jumping. There will also be two official horse inspections to test the health and wellbeing of the animals.

Each test takes place on consecutive days, during which each athlete rides the same horse. The results count towards the individual and team events.

A team consists of three to four horse/rider combinations. The total points are calculated by combining the overall scores of the team's best three athletes. After the three tests, the eventing team medals are awarded.

The eventing individual competition adds a fourth round, as its jumping test has a qualifier preceding the final. After the first jumping test, the 25 highest ranked athletes (including all riders tied for 25th place, with a maximum of three participants per NOC) qualify for the jumping individual final.

The final ranking of the individual athletes is determined by the combined points earned in all four tests (dressage, cross country, first jumping test, jumping individual final).

The tests:

Dressage

This test of compulsory movements evaluates the horse's obedience, flexibility and harmony with the rider. Judges award points for each exercise, with the total score converted into penalty points that are added to the jumping or time penalties of the following two days.

The dressage test will be the 2008 Olympic Games 4 star B test (short).

Cross country

Each horse/athlete combination attempts to complete the course, which involves up to 45 jumping efforts, within a prescribed length of time without errors.

Phase	Distance	Speed	Time
	metres (m)	metres per minute (m/min)	minutes (min)
Cross country test	5700-6270	570	10 - 11

The ground jury may reduce course distances, for example in the case of extreme weather conditions. The height of fixed and solid cross country obstacles may not exceed 1.20m, and the overall height of a natural hedge or brush fence may not exceed 1.45m.

Jumping

This is the final session of the eventing competition and requires competitors to jump 10 to 12 obstacles similar to those in the jumping event. The test consists of a maximum of 15 jumping efforts and is designed to demonstrate that the horses have retained their suppleness and correct training after the cross country test.

The length of the course will be between approximately 500m and 600m and the required speed will be 375m/minute.

The first jumping test will determine the final team classification. This is followed by the final jumping test, in which the 25 best placed athletes, including those who tie for 25th place (with a maximum of three athletes per NOC), compete to determine the individual classification.

The height of the jumps is limited to 1.25m in the first qualifier and 1.30m in the final.

Horse inspections

The first and second horse inspections will be open to the public and will be conducted on a 30-50m tarmac strip in the main stadium. To be eligible to compete, a horse must undergo two inspections, one on the day prior to the dressage test and a second before the jumping test.

These two inspections are conducted by the ground jury and the veterinary delegate. In addition, there are two examinations performed by the veterinarian, the first on the horse's arrival at the stables, the second after the horse/rider have completed the cross country.

Differences between the FEI World Equestrian Games and the Olympic Games

At the International Equestrian Federation (FEI) World Equestrian Games, the team and individual events are held concurrently. The winning team (four athletes nominated before the start of the competition) is the one with the lowest total score (three best scores).

At the Olympic Games, an additional jumping phase will decide the final classification of the eventing individual competition.

Changes since the London 2012 Olympic Games

At the Rio 2016 Olympic Games up to four team members may compete, at London up to five team members were permitted. The quota for eventing has changed from 75 to 65.

Sport rules and procedures

In the dressage test, each competitor's grade awarded by the judges are converted into penalty points.

In the cross country and jumping tests, each athlete's penalties for faults at obstacles are added to the penalties he/she may have incurred for excess time.

Eventing individual

Final classification will be decided by adding all the penalty points incurred in the tests. The competitor with the lowest total number of penalty points will be declared the winner.

Eventing team

The team whose three best athletes have the lowest total number of penalty points after tests will be declared the winner.

Tiebreak rules

Eventing individual

In the event of a tie, classification will be decided on the results of:

1. Best overall cross country score.
2. Cross country time closest to the optimum time.
3. Best final jumping score.
4. Best qualifier jumping score.
5. Best time (fastest) in the final jumping.
6. Best total of collective marks in the dressage test.
7. If still equal the tie shall be declared.

Eventing team

In the event of a tie, the winning team will be the one with the best combined highest placings. If they are still tied, the medal or placing will be shared.

Elimination/retirement/withdrawal

If an athlete is eliminated, retires or withdraws from the competition he/she will receive no rank and will be listed at the bottom of the individual ranking. However, for team classification only, a competitor who fails to complete the competition will be awarded 1000 points.

Disqualification

The ground jury may disqualify a competitor for a number of reasons according to the FEI rules for eventing. In such a case, the competitor will receive no rank and will be listed at the bottom of the individual ranking. A disqualified competitor will not count in the team results.

Protests/appeals

The NOCs may protest or appeal according to the FEI rules.

Description of Obstacles

Descrição dos obstáculos / Description des obstacles

1. Copacabana Flower Bed

The first fence of the course has a kind and inviting upward profile with colourful flowers to help a good start. It is painted like the pavement of Copacabana and decorated with surf boards.

2. Arch of Lapa

An upright fence, up the hill turning towards the first water complex, replicating the arch of Lapa, a famous Rio monument.

3. Picnic Table

A classic eventing fence; for the horses the first square spread fence of the course.

4abcd. Botanical Garden Water Jump

The first jump into water with a longer but easier route, giving a choice of difficulties to the riders: the risk either of refusal or of losing time. The theme of the combination is sculpted animals and vegetation as in a botanical garden.

5. Pine Wood Ramp

This a relaxing straightforward fence for the horses between the water combination and the next one.

6ab. Corners Question

In the wood, two successive brush corners with again a long route to give a choice between the time and the technical difficulty.

7. Burghley Fence

A traditional spectacular but inviting fence to be jumped at speed.

8abc Pao de Acucar

A combination of 3 or 4 jumps depending on the route chosen by the rider. This fence has wagon trains on top of the hill recalling the famous site in Rio.

9. Pao de Acucar

A combination of 3 or 4 jumps depending on the route chosen by the rider. This fence has wagon trains on top of the hill recalling the famous site in Rio.

10. The Bamboo Keyhole

A natural feature of the Deodoro track: the horses have to jump with confidence into a narrow hole created in the middle of a bamboo forest.

11ab Pan Am Wall Combination

An imposing combination of a step followed by two angled brush elements asking courage and straightness of the horses and precision from the riders. An easier time-costing choice is also offered.

12. Pan Am Wall Combination

An imposing combination of a step followed by two angled brush elements asking courage and straightness of the horses and precision from the riders. An easier time-costing choice is also offered.

13. Amazonian Log

A huge log felled on a sloping part of the track, requiring big jumping efforts and introducing a succession of natural jumps on a woodland theme.

14ab. Narrows Wood Piles

Two narrow log piles on a bend, asking precision, control of speed and balance.

15. Log Pile and Ditch

After circling in the wood the riders return between the narrow woodpiles in the direction of the second jump into the water.

16abc. Old Water Complex

At this complex horses arrive to jump a log landing on a slope in the water, gallop in the water, and jump up and out via a step followed by an upright representing a spider's web. Technically water jumps always cause hesitation and problems for horses, sometimes refusals.

17ab. Palm Tree Question

A combination of fences around a palm tree with a spread jump and a corner decorated with banana baskets; a longer, easier route is proposed.

18. The Flower Boxes

A single fence placed after a long uphill slope, giving a breather to the horses between two combination fences.

19. Ski Jump

An impressive feature: a panoramic log, the landing on a long slope, requiring good control of balance, and directional precision approaching the two narrow fences connected with this big jump.

20ab. Ski Jump

An impressive feature: a panoramic log, the landing on a long slope, requiring good control of balance, and directional precision approaching the two narrow fences connected with this big jump.

21. Wood Pile Launch

A spectacular jump coming back close to the warm up area, take-off and landing on sloping ground.

22. White Oxer

A spread fence recalling the style of the nearby warm up enclosure.

23. Malmesbury Cottage

A technical combination of a spread fence followed by an angled gate, numbered as separate fences. The riders have a choice between jumping both parts in a straight line or circling around the gate, much less risky but costing time.

24. Malmesbury Cottage

A technical combination of a spread fence followed by an angled gate, numbered as separate fences. The riders have a choice between jumping both parts in a straight line or circling around the gate, much less risky but costing time.

25ab. Web Waterjump

Back again across the water, jumping in by a drop landing in the water, and out by an angled upright.

26. Bamboo Vertical

Now close to the end of the course we propose two single fences before the last water jump: a vertical fence with a bamboo theme followed by a spread representing a fruit waggon.

27. Fruit Waggon

Now close to the end of the course we propose two single fences before the last water jump: a vertical fence with a bamboo theme followed by a spread representing a fruit waggon.

28. Fisherman's Lake

A big new lake: into the water by a boat the horses have to negotiate two big fishes and jump out by a toad. A longer, twisty route with kind jumps is also proposed for tired horses.

29ab. Fisherman's Lake

A big new lake: into the water by a boat the horses have to negotiate two big fishes and jump out by a toad. A longer, twisty route with kind jumps is also proposed for tired horses.

30. Fisherman's Lake

A big new lake: into the water by a boat the horses have to negotiate two big fishes and jump out by a toad. A longer, twisty route with kind jumps is also proposed for tired horses.

31. Knowledge Bridge

This is a spread fence representing the famous bridge of Rio.

32. Brush Fence

Last but one is a kind brush fence, forgiving and motivating for tired horses.

33. Sambodromo

A flavour of carnival and on the way to Tokyo.

Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regras da competição / Format et règles de compétition

As of 25 JUL 2016

Olympic competition format

The dressage discipline comprises the team and individual events. The team event includes the grand prix and grand prix special. The individual event includes the grand prix, the grand prix special and the grand prix freestyle (also known as the Kur).

A team consists of three or four horse/rider combinations and the team points are the sum of the points of the three best athletes on each team.

All athletes compete in the grand prix test, in which the points count towards the individual and team dressage events.

After the grand prix test, the best six teams, including those tied for sixth place, qualify for the final team competition (grand prix special). Every rider from the qualified teams also advance to the individual second qualifier (grand prix special) as well as the highest placed eight athletes, including those tied for eighth place, which have not secured a spot via their teams.

After the grand prix special, medals are awarded to the best three dressage teams. The final team results for those placed first to sixth are the combined results of the grand prix and grand prix special. The grand prix results are used to rank the teams placed seventh to last.

The best 18 athletes (including those tied for 18th place, with a maximum of three per NOC), after the grand prix special (based on the points earned in the grand prix special) advance to the grand prix freestyle. The final ranking of the individual athletes is set according to the results of the grand prix freestyle only.

Teams

A National Olympic Committee (NOC), having obtained eligibility and qualification according to the Olympic Games eligibility and qualification procedures, may enter a team composed of three or four athlete/horse combinations.

Individuals

NOCs may enter one or two individuals with one horse each after having obtained eligibility and qualification according to the Olympic Games eligibility and qualification procedures.

Reserve horses

One reserve horse per directly qualified team is allowed.

Differences between the FEI World Equestrian Games and the Olympic Games

At the International Equestrian Federation (FEI) World Equestrian Games, team medals are awarded to the best three dressage teams based on the results of the grand prix only. The team event does not include a grand prix special, as there is at the Olympic Games.

The 30 best riders from the grand prix then qualify for the individual grand prix special, and medals are awarded to the best three riders based on their result in that event.

Unlike at the Olympic Games, another set of individual medals is awarded at the FEI World Equestrian Games based on the grand prix freestyle event. The 15 best riders from the grand prix special qualify for the grand prix freestyle and individual medals are awarded to the best three riders.

Changes since the London 2012 Olympic Games

At the Rio 2016 Olympic Games up to four team members may compete, at London up to three team members were permitted. The total quota has changed from 50 to 60.

Sport rules and procedures

Horses must be at least eight years old. Qualification is achieved by meeting the minimum standards of performance at nominated competitions, or competition levels, in the period beginning 1 January 2015.

The arena must be a perfectly flat and level sand surface, 60m long and 20m wide, marked outside the enclosure of the arena and separated from the spectators by a distance of at least 15m.

The FEI grand prix test contains a series of compulsory movements. The grand prix special is a shorter and more concentrated version of the grand prix test. The grand prix freestyle (Kur) is a freestyle composition of grand prix movements performed with the athlete's own choreography to musical accompaniment. Seven judges award marks out of 10 for each movement and for a collective assessment.

There is one horse inspection which takes place before the grand prix.

Tiebreak rules

Team

If two or more teams are tied by score, ties will be broken as follows:

- The best result by the lowest scoring team member in the grand prix special will be used to break the tie.
- If still tied, the same rule will be applied to the next lowest scoring athlete.
- For teams placed seventh and below, the same rules apply for the grand prix.

Individual

If two or more athletes are tied by score, ties will be broken as follows:

- The artistic marks in the grand prix freestyle will be used to break the tie.
- If still tied the marks for harmony will be used to break the tie.
- If still tied the marks for choreography will be used to break the tie.
- If still tied the competitors share the rank.

Penalties and disqualification

The first error leads to a deduction of two percentage points from the total score, and the second error results in elimination.

Protests/appeals

There is no appeal against the judges' marks. The NOCs may protest or appeal according to the FEI rules.

Competition Format and Rules

Formato e regras da competição / Format et règles de compétition

As of 25 JUL 2016

Olympic competition format

The jumping discipline comprises the team and individual events, with 75 athlete/horse combinations allowed to enter – this quota is for both events.

The individual event is made up of five rounds: the first, second and third individual qualifiers, and rounds A and B of the final.

In each round, horse/rider combinations jump a series of obstacles that may include simulated stone walls, parallel rails, triple bars, water jumps and other variations designed to test the rider's skill and the horse's jumping ability.

Penalties are issued for faults such as toppling an obstacle, refusals and exceeding the time allowed.

All athletes compete in the first individual qualifier test. The results count points towards qualifying for the individual final and also set the start list for the team event.

The team event is made up of two rounds and they also serve as the second and third qualifiers for the individual event. Each team consists of a maximum of four and a minimum of three riders. The teams are ranked by the sum of the points of the three best riders in each round.

The top 60 riders (including those tied for 60th place) on the first individual qualifier test plus team athletes ranked lower than 60th are allowed to start in the second individual qualifier.

After the second individual qualifier/team round one, the best 45 athletes (including those tied for 45th place), based on the combined score of the first and second individual qualifiers, progress to the third individual qualifier and the best eight teams advance to team round two (including those tied for eighth place).

After the third individual qualifier/team round two, medals are awarded for the jumping team event (based on the combined results of both team rounds). If two or more teams are tied for medal places with the same number of points, ties will be broken by a jump-off(s).

The best 35 riders (including those tied for 35th place, with a maximum of three per NOC) after the third individual qualifier (based on the combined results of all three qualifiers) advance to the round A individual final.

The best 20 riders (including those tied for 20th place) after final round A (based on the final round A points only, as the results of the qualifiers do not count) qualify for round B. The final ranking of the individual athletes is set according to the combined points earned in rounds A and B of the individual final.

If two or more riders are tied for the medal places with the same number of points, ties will be broken by a jump-off(s).

Differences between the FEI World Equestrian Games and the Olympic Games

The formula for the International Equestrian Federation (FEI) World Equestrian Games is very different. At the first and second competitions, a speed competition and a two-round team competition decide the team medals. These two competitions together with a third competition over two rounds serve as the qualifying competition to select the four athletes who will decide the Individual World Championship medals in a change-of-horse final.

Changes since the London 2012 Olympic Games

None.

Sport rules and procedures

Horses must be at least nine years old. Qualification is achieved by meeting minimum standards of performance at nominated competitions or competition levels in the period beginning 1 January 2015.

A maximum of four athletes/horses per NOC, selected from among those entered, may compete. Rio 2016 will organise a training session before the competition for riders/horses in the jumping competition in the main arena, or elsewhere under FEI regulations.

The course of 10 to 13 jumps is laid out in an enclosed arena (turf or sand), with removable obstacles erected typically in the form of barriers, fences, gates and balustrades.

Various attributes are tested in the discipline (speed, precision, power, etc.) but the object is always the same — to jump the entire course within the time allowed without making a mistake – a clear round.

If any part of an obstacle is knocked down or if the horse refuses a jump, faults are accumulated, and a fall of either horse or rider results in elimination.

Tiebreak rules

Any tie for teams or individual medals is broken by a jump-off(s).

Disqualification rules

A disqualification means that a competitor and their horse or horses may take no further part in the event or in any other event of the competition.

Protests/appeals

The NOCs may protest or appeal according to the FEI rules.

Description of Fences

Descrição dos obstáculos / Description des obstacles

Fence 1 – LONDON 2012

As a tradition on the Olympic Games, we honour the past Olympic Games with one jump allusive to it. Here is the London Montage, a fence used on the 2012 London Olympic Games.

Fence 2 – MASCOTE ESPORTIVO

On this jump Vinicius, the RIO 2016 Olympic Mascot, gets on a horse to salute our athletes.

Fence 3 – PILAR BARROCO

The traditional Barroco architecture used on the Colonial age in Brazil is represented here in these grey pillars. .

Fence 4 A,B,C– CONFETE E SERPENTINA

A tribute to the most famous of the Brazilian party events, the Carnival. In this triple combination we show the “Confete” and the “Serpentina” – colorful small pieces and strings of paper, that are thrown all over the “folioes” - on this very traditional musical and life Brazilian celebration.

Fence 5 – JARDIM BOTANICO RIO DE JANEIRO

The Jardim Botânico originated around 1808, when the Portuguese Court was transferred to Brazil. From 1890 on, it has its actual name. It is one of the most important parks of Rio, a Research Centre. The Jardim Botânico do Rio de Janeiro is represented here by its Portal and one of its Fountains.

Fence 6 – PIGTOGRAM

The RIO 2016 Look of the Games department created very interesting pictograms for each sport and discipline.

Fence 7 – LOOK OF THE GAMES

Here the beautiful work of the RIO 2016 Look of the Games, representing all the natural richness of Rio on this great panel, is used as a take-off reference for the water jump.

Fence 8 – ARCOS DA LAPA

Initially built as an Aqueduct to take water to different parts of Rio, Arcos da Lapa had its construction starting on the XVIII century and in 1896 when other ways of distribution of water started, this beautiful archway started being used to run trams, and is today one of the Rio postcards.

Fence 9 – COLONIAL DE PARATY

This jump represents the Traditional Architecture of the Colonial period of Brazil. This type of architecture is present in many cities all over the country. The city of Paraty, in the south coast of de Rio de Janeiro state is a great example of preservation of our memory.

Fence 10 – CALCADA DE COPACABANA

Using Portuguese inspiration, this postcard of Rio was first built in 1906, with imported material from Portugal. In 1970 with the improvements made to the sidewalk, it acquired the present and more round shape of its design.

Fence 11 A,B- MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

Brazil is a very musical country, every part of the country has each peculiar rhythm, and Rio is very famous for its samba and is the cradle of Bossa Nova.

Fence 12 – MORRO DOIS IRMAOS

The RIO 2016 Look of the Games department created very interesting ways to show the Rio de Janeiro natural beauties, represented here by the Morro Dois Irmaos, another post card of Rio de Janeiro.
